LOGIBEC ANNOUNCES NORMAL COURSE ISSUER BID

Montréal, February 11, 2008 – Logibec Groupe Informatique Ltd. announces that the Toronto Stock Exchange has approved its normal course issuer bid. Under the normal course issuer bid, Logibec will be entitled to repurchase for cancellation up to a maximum of 497,041 common shares over the twelve-month period starting February 13, 2008 and ending February 12, 2009, representing 5% of the issued and outstanding common shares. The purchases by Logibec will be conducted through the facilities of The Toronto Stock Exchange. The purchase price for shares repurchased under the normal course issuer bid shall be the market price at the time of purchase. As at February 11, 2008, there were 9,940,824 common shares issued and outstanding. The normal course issuer bid has been instituted in that Logibec considers that the repurchase of shares at certain market prices will be beneficial to Logibec.

During the most recently completed six calendar month, the average daily trading volume for the common shares of Logibec was 2,535 common shares. Consequently, under the rules and policies of The Toronto Stock Exchange, Logibec has the right to repurchase during the same trading day a maximum of 1,000 common shares. Moreover, Logibec may make once per calendar week and in addition to the 1,000 common shares daily repurchase limit, one block (as such term is defined in the Toronto Stock Exchange Company Manual) purchase of common shares not directly or indirectly owned by insiders of Logibec in accordance with the rules and policies of The Toronto Stock Exchange.

During the normal course issuer bid of Logibec which will end on February 12, 2008, Logibec will have repurchased an aggregate of 205,600 Common Shares at an average price of $19.57.
